With this issue, we would like to present a little more of Claude Thornhill's background. He formed his band in 1940, playing his debut at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City. From there he went to other large hotels and the making of records. Some of his outstanding engagements were: Statler Hotel, New York City; Paramount Theatre, New York City; Glen Island Casino, New Rochelle; Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago; Shamrock Hotel, Houston; Palladium, Hollywood; Sherman Hotel, Chicago. Claude Thornhill and his band have made recordings for Columbia, and also RCA-Victor. Records such as "Snowfall" (theme song), "Sugarfoot Rag," "Moonlight Bay," "Autumn Nocturne," "Raindrop Serenade," and an album of George Gershwin songs are but a few of his recordings.

Ticket sales are still going strong. To date, we have sold about a third of the supply.
